Collection and processing of data for the purpose of fulfilling the contract and creating a customer account.

We only collect personal data if you voluntarily provide it to us when you make a reservation by contacting us (e.g. by using the contact form or by e-mail). The mandatory fields are marked as such because the data they contain are necessary for us to perform the contract wherein you have contacted us. Without them, the reservation cannot be completed and the service cannot be provided. What data is collected results from the forms into which the data is entered.

We use the data you provide to perform the contract and respond to your inquiries. Once the contract has been performed or your customer account deleted, the processing of your data will be limited, and following the expiry of the storage periods set out in the tax regulations and the Accounting Act, these data will be deleted, unless you expressly consent to the continued use of the data or we reserve the right to continue using the data in line with the applicable laws, of which we inform you in this statement. Your data can be deleted at any time. In order to do so, please send a message to our contact e-mail address indicated in the Contact tab or by post.

Data transfer

For the implementation of the contract, we pass your data on to our company's accounting office, which processes your data only for statutory purposes.
